CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT DUANE A. ZILLER

Chief Master Sergeant Duane A. Ziller is the Superintendent of the Defense Equal Opportunity Management Institute, Patrick Air Force Base, Florida. He is responsible for matters affecting all enlisted personnel assigned to the Institute, to include both staff and students. He advises the Commandant on all issues affecting all enlisted personnel of this joint activity. He is the focal point for morale, welfare, and discipline for the 107 staff members and over 1,200 students annually. He ensures internal administrative operating systems are established and monitored for compliance with Department of Defense directives. He assists directors and supervisors on matters affecting the career enhancement of all assigned enlisted personnel to include promotions, assignments, professional military education, recognition programs, and standards of conduct. He provides guidance, counsel, and leadership to all enlisted personnel, which is vital to the performance of their duties and their career progression.

Chief Master Sergeant Ziller entered the Air Force in 1978. He is a native of Hazleton, Pennsylvania. He is married to the former Marjorie Wohnsigl of Las Vegas, Nevada. They have one daughter, Amanda.
